SPFC Supportive Housing

The Baldwin Women’s Residence (BWR) and the SPFC Men’s Residence participate in group and individual counseling sessions to increase resilience and work to address co-occurring diagnoses in a trauma-informed manner. Our residences housed 183 men and women last year.

Half of BWR residents participated in individual counseling in addition to group sessions.

SPFC COMMUNITY REVIEWS

Impossible not to give these kind people anything less than 5 stars. My family and I have been struggling with the prices of everything going up and finding it hard to pay bills, we often times can't afford to get food and me being pregnant, that has been very stressful. This has been very helpful, and thank you to all of you.

I visited the clinic at the Deuces Building in South St Pete, and would like to sincerely thank Dr. Josephine, Bill Feltner and Stacy (the onsite nurse) for being friendly, responsive and supportive. I really appreciate the assistance during a time of need. These are experienced professionals who genuinely care about your health, and will go the extra mile to help you feel better. I would highly recommend visiting the South St Pete location!

Coming here has changed my life. I put my dental health on the back burner because I never had dental insurance, even as a kid. I only came in because I couldn't chew due to a giant cavity. I've had three wisdom teeth extracted, fillings and some guidance on getting a root canal at a reduced rate since I first came here in October. I'm truly grateful for the St. Pete Free Dental Clinic. Truly grateful

If you're looking for a place to start over and get yourself right, then Baldwin is the place you should strive to get into. The staff is awesomely wonderful here. They all care about your well-being and want you to succeed in your new sober way of life. I am blessed to have each and everyone of the staff in my concern. They help you with so much, this way you back out on your new journey of life equipped with all the resources and tools you will need. Just remember you always have to put the work in to get the most out of your journey in life. They are here to help guide you not do it for you!

This food pantry does a great service for the community. It's fresh food with some packaged goods as well. Some things you usually find are Milk, vegetables, bread, frozen meat, fruit, and hygiene items for women and sometimes men. A lot of people usually show up but they get through pretty quick. They have a TV where you can see where you are in queue. Plenty of seating as well. As far as I know all you need is some form of ID to receive service. It doesn't have to be a government ID if you don't have one.
